TO THE READER.

The primary object of this Manual is to teach natives to converse in English. It is designed to help carry out the plan of Government, to extend English schools among the indigenous race of these islands. At the same time, the work is designed to assist strangers, speaking the English, to acquire the correct colloquial speech of the Hawaiians. There has long prevailed, between natives and foreigners, a corrupted tongue, which the former only use in speaking to the latter, but never among themselves. It is a method of speech which should be abandoned, as it gives a false impression, derogatory to all rule, and is without system or beauty. To effect this end, colloquial words and sentences only have been chosen; and in order to make the one a literal interpretation of the other, the idiom has been frequently sacrificed, while endeavoring to express the true meaning of the corresponding words.

To strangers wishing to learn the language of the country, it will be useful to explain that the vowel sounds of the Hawaiian are uniform, and never vary except as long and short sounds. A has the sound of a in father. E has the sound of a in fate or of e in vein. I has the sound of e in me, or of i in pin. O has the natural sound of long o in own, and u that of oo in good. In a word, the vowels contain the sound they bear in most of the continental languages of Europe. With this explanation, the learner may proceed to the pronunciation of words.

The articles he (a or an), with ke and ka, (the), and na, the sign of the plural, are prefixed to all nouns, except such as express a thing or things in general, or where a possessive pronoun precedes the noun.

But the learner is referred to the excellent Grammars of Judge Andrews and Prof. Alexander, which he should carefully peruse, both before and while consulting this Manual. It is for this reason that directions of importance in the study of the Hawaiian are here omitted, as therein contained more fully than can be expected in this work.

OF THE VERBS TO HAVE AND TO BE.

(There are no words in the Hawaiian corresponding to the verbs 'to have' and 'to be,' and the genius of the language does not allow the use of such verbs. When we say, 'I have the thing,' the Hawaiian expresses it, 'The thing is to me, or with me.')

I have a father.
Thou hast a mother.
He (or she) has a child.
We have a house.
You have a fair.
They have a 'ok.
I had some money.
Thou hadst pleasure.
He (or she) had wealth.
We had shoes.
You had food.

NO KA HAINA 'TO HAVE' A ME 'TO BE.'

(O na huaolelo, 'have,' 'hast,' 'had,' 'has,' a me 'be,' 'am,' 'was,' 'been,' aole ilow na hua ano like me ka Hawaii; ma na huaolelo e ae, e komo mai ana ke ano o kela mau huaolelo huole.)

To put the house in order.
To cook the food.
To wipe the dishes.
To spread the table.
To place aright the dishes
A knife and fork by each plate.

With the cups and saucers
and the teaspoons in the saucers.

The house is to be swept.
The beds must be spread.
And the chairs to be set in order.

Open the closets and arrange the clothes.
And hang up the dresses
just washed.

Then come and sew with me.

Now, let us converse.
Do you like to live here?

HE KAMAILIO ME KEKAHI WAHINE MAOLI.

Heaha ka mea e hanaia?
Heaha ka kaua e hana'i?
E kokua mai oe ia'u.
Ua pilikia wau.
Ua pau kuu ikaika.
He nui ka hana i koe?
Mai makau oe i ka hana.
Aole au e makou.
Heaha ka hana i koe?

Ka hana i ka hale a maikai
Ke kahu a moa i ka ai.
Ke kawele i na pa.
Ka hali i ka papa aina.
Ke kau pono i na pa.
He pahi me ke o ma ka aoao o na pa.

Me na kiahati me na pati, a me na puna ti iloko o
na pa ti.

E kahiliia ka hale.
E haliia na moe.
A e kau pololei ia na noho.

E wehe i na hale lolo, a e hooponopono i na lolo.
A e kau pono iluna na lolo i holoiia iho nei.

Alaila, e hele mai e humu-humu pu me au.

Ano, e kamailio kaua.
He makemake anei oe e noho maanei?

I like to live here.

You are a pleasant foreigner.

It is because you do right.

If I do wrong would you be angry?

I should then be angry.

At what wrong would you be angry?

If you refuse to obey.

If you are saucy.

And if you are lazy.

If you forsake and run off.

If you take things without asking.

If you give away my property.

If you steal.

And if you tell lies.

If you say yes, and do it not.

Then I should be angry.

How, if I wish to go home, can I not go?

If you ask me when the work is done, I can consent.

It is proper that I know of your going.

When I lived with Mrs. B. it was not so.

Makemake no au e noho maanei

He haole oluolu no oe.

No ka mea, ke hana nei oe ma ka pono.

A i hana hewa paha au, e huhu anei oe?

Alaila, e huhu paha wau. E huhu ana oe i na hewa hea?

Ina e hoole mai oe i ka hoolohe.

Ina pakike mai oe.

A i molowa paha oe.

Ina haalele mai oe, a holo aku.

Ina lawe wale oe i na mea me ke noi ole.

Ina e haawi wale aku oe i kuu waiwai.

Ina e aihue oe.

A ina e hoopunipuni mai oe.

Ina e ae wale mai oe, aole nae e hana ia mea.

Alaila e huhu auanei au.

Pehea, a i mana'o au e hoi i kuu wahi, aole au e pono ke hele aku?

Ina e noi mai oe, a pau ka hana, hiki no ia'u ke ae aku.

Pono e ike au i kou hele ana.

Ia'u i noho ai me B waihi-ne, aole pela ia.

How was it there?

Mrs. B. cuffed my ear and scolded me.

What did you say to her?

I only said, you have too much work.

She did not treat you kindly?

She was stingy of her food when my friends begged it.

And she said, I ate too much.

She said, too, I ate greedily.

And what did you reply? I told her to look away.

Ah! you were saucy there. She wished to instruct you how to eat properly.

Perhaps she did, but I ate as other natives do.

You say aright, it is wrong to steal.

How is it to take little things?

It is wrong, if you take a pin without asking, by and by you will take large things in the same way.

Are you sorry for a pin?

Pehea la ia malaila?

Pai mai la o B. wahine i kuu pepeiao, a nuku mai la ia'u.

Heaha kau i olelo aku ai ia ia?

Olelo wale aku au, he nui loa kau hana.

Aole anei ia i hana loko-maikai mai?

Ua aua ia i kana ai i ke noi ana mai o na makamaka o'u.

A. he nui loa kuu ai ana, wahi ana.

I mai la hoi ia, he pakela ai au.

A heaha kau i pane aku ai I aku la au, e nana ma kahie.

Ka! Ua pakike oe ilaila. Manao no oia, e ao aku ia oe i ka ai pono ana.

Pela paha, aka ai no au e like me ka na kanaka maoli e ae.

He olelo pono kau, he mea hewa ka aihue.

Pehea ka lawe wale ana i na mea lilii?

Ua hewa ia, ina e lawe wale oe i ke pine, mahope e lawe wale oe i na mea nui, ma ia aoao hookahi no.

Ua minamina anei oe i ke pine?

No, it is not for a pin, but the right thing I want.

I see, it is wrong to take a pin, because it is stealing.

That is, be afraid to steal little things, then great things will be safer with you.

I had a little boy who stole matches at first, and now he is in prison for stealing my money.

Is it wrong to receive stolen property from another?

It is wrong, it is like stealing.

May I conceal a theft?

No, it is helping the thief. This is my first hearing these things.

Did your parents never teach you these things?

My parents are ignorant and never told me the right and wrong.

Do they think it right to conceal?

Such is their thought, and so many Hawaiians think.

When they forbid you not to do a thing, did you obey?

Aole no ke pine, aka no ka pono i kuu manao.

Ke ike nei au, he hewa ke lawe i ke pine, no ka mea, he aihue ia.

Pela no, e makau oe i ka aihue i na mea liilii, alaila e malu hoi na mea nui ia oe.

He wahi keiki uuku ko'u i aihue i kinohou i na maki, ano aia no ia i ka hale paahao no ka aihue ana i kuu dala.

He mea hewa anei ke lawe au i ka waiwai aihue na hai mai?

He mea hewa ia, ua like ia me ka aihue.

Pono anei ke huna au i ka aihue ana?

Aole, he kokua aihue no ia Akahi no keia o kuu lohe ana i keia mau mea.

Aole no i ao mai na makua ou ia oe i keia mau mea?

Ua naaupo na makua o'u, aole no i hai mai ia'u i ka pono a me ka hewa.

Ua manao anei laua he pono ke huna?

Pela ko laua manao, a pela ka manao o na Hawaii he nui.

Ina e papa mai laua ia oe, mai hana i kekahi mea, ua hoolohe no anei oe?

No, native children never obey their parents, unless they choose.

Do they not punish you then?

No, they are angry sometimes, and sometimes laugh when we refuse, and that ends it.

That is not the end of the thing.

Tell what is the end?

This is the end, they become very bad children and men.

If the parent punishes at any time, what will the child do?

If the child be punished, he runs away and forsakes the parent.

Where does the child go?

He goes to some other person

Does that person take him in?

Always, and takes his part

Ah! that is very wrong.

So you say, but tell me where is the wrong?

It makes bad children to conquer their parents.

It is wrong to let children have their will in the wrong.

Aole hoolohe na keiki maoli i na makua o lakou, ke makemake ole lakou.

Aole anei lakou e hoopai mai ilaila?

Aole, ua huhu lakou i kekahi wa, a ua akaaka i kahi wa, ke hoole makou, a o ke oki no ia.

Aole ia o ka hope o ia mea

E hai mai, heaha ka hope?

Eia ka hope, ua lilo lakou i poe keiki hewa loa a i kanaka hewa.

Ina e hoopai ka makua i kekahi wa, pehea ka hana a ke keiki?

A i hoopaiia ke keiki, ua holo aku no ia, a haalele mai i ka makua.

I hea la ka hele ana o ke keiki?

Ua hele aku no ia me kekahi mea e.

A hookipa no kela ia ia?

Mau no ia, a ua kokua ma kona aoao.

Auwe! he hewa loa ia.

Pela kau olelo; e hai mai hoi oe i ke ano o ia hewa

He hoolanakila na keiki hewa maluna o na makua.

He hewa ke ae aku i na keiki e hooko i ko lakou manao ma ka hewa.

What is the reason there are so many bad men and women?

This is it; they were not taught to obey when children.

How must they be taught?

If they will not listen to good advice, then punish them until they will obey.

But all natives call it very bad to punish children;
it makes them angry,
and they cry.

But if they are punished
aright, they will fear, and learn to do aright.

It is true, you are wise and we are foolish.

Heaha ke kumu e nui ai na kane a me na wahine hewa?

Eia no ia, aole lakou i aoia
i ka wa kamalii e hoolohe.

Pehea la lakou e aoia aku ai?

Ina aole lakou e hoolohe i ke ao maikai ana, alaila
e hoopaiia lakou, a pono ia lakou ke hoolohe.

Ke olelo nei na kanaka a pau, he hewa ka hoopai i na keiki; he hana ukiuki
a me ka uwe ia ia lakou

Aka, i hoopai pono ia lakou, e makau no lakou,
a e ao hoi i na hana ma
ka pono.

He oiaio, ua naauao oukou,
a ua naaupo makou.

BATHING.

Can you swim?

I can swim like a fish.

We bathe every day.

It is pleasant to bathe.

It is a means to be clean.

It is also a means of health

It is a means of much sport

Are there many that can swim?

Almost everybody.

We learn when children.

Parents cause little children to swim.

We are called a race half fish.

We are very much in the water.

He pinepine makou iloko o ka wai.

Do you bathe in a retired place?

We do not seek retired places.

Do the males have one place and the women another place?

And the boys and girls also bathe apart?

No, from old time we have always bathed together.

Alas! I am ashamed of you

True, such is the custom here.

Do your teachers consent?

No, indeed, they entirely forbid it.

Do any of you regard their words?

Some do and some do not.

How do children regard them?

Children do not regard at all.

How, do parents allow their boys and girls to bathe together?

Children do not regard the forbidding of their parents as anything to be observed

It is now plain why so many children go astray

He auau anei oukou ma kahi nalowale?

Aole o makou imi i na wahi nalowale.

He wahi okoa anei ko na kane, a he wahi okoa ko na wahine?

A ke auau kaawale nei anei na keikikane a me na kaikamahine?

Aole i manao na keiki i ka papa ana o na makua, he mea ia e malamaia ai.

Ano, ua maopopo ka mea i nui ai na keiki hele i ka hewa.

For they who bathe thus have no shame.

When I become a teacher
I will lift up my voice against this practice.

Why not now?

I am afraid they will mock

But try to do good now, if you be mocked; then,
when a man, you will be strong to do good

No ka mea, o ka poe auau pela, aohe o lakou hilahila.

Aia a lilo au i kumu, e hoo-

OF THE AGE.

How many are your years;
I am ten years last March.

How old is your father?

My father does not know his age.

How do you know your age?

It was written when I was born.

Was not your father's age written?

Letters were not known then.

How old is your sister?

She is almost twelve.

She was born when Lord
George came here.
Did not your forefathers
count their years?

They did not count them.
Only some chiefs knew their age.

The people were all very ignorant.
Are they enlightened now

Some are enlightened and some not.

Can the ignorant ones
count their years?

They cannot count them.

Pehea hoi kou ike ia mea?
Ua hanauia i ka wa i hele

GOING TO SCHOOL.

I am going to school.
I think the hour is past.

Where are my books?
Where did you put them?
I do not know the place.
Why do you not have one place for them?

You always forget the place.

Your master will punish you for tardiness.

KA HELE ANA I KE KULA.

E hele ana au i ke kula.
Ke manao nei au ua hala

I will also tell your father.

He too will punish you.

John, did you see my slate

It is in the room, under the table.

Where is my writing paper
I saw it in the verandah.

Perhaps the wind has blown it.

My pencil is missing.

I can't find it.

Here, take this; be quick.

Mary, where is my hat?

There it is, in the yard.

Now run, the hour is past.

The bell has done ringing.

Ua paa au i kuu aina ka-were hunting your books

Where is your excuse?

I have none

Then you will remain after school.

Have you got your lesson?
I have got some.

Recite what you have got.

You are doing nothing.

You are sitting idle.
Study your lesson.
Work your sums.

My slate is not washed.

Go and wash it.
I have no slate pencil.
Where is that I gave you?

It is lost.
If this is lost, you will be punished.

Joseph, will you give me your penknife.

For what purpose?
To sharpen my pencil.

It will dull a penknife.

Here is a knife.
John, do not shake the desk.
You hinder my writing.

Aole, no ka loihio kouimi

Ke keakea nei oe i kuu kakau ana.

The desk shakes.

Stop, sit still.

Have you learned your lesson?

Yes, sir, I think so.

Do you know it well by heart?

I have studied it an hour.

Come and recite.

Speak louder, I don't hear

Boys, you are noisy.

Girls, don't laugh.

If you make noise the laws will judge you.

Where is the place to begin

There, at the tenth lesson.

Master, what is this word?

William, do you tell him.

Take your writing paper.

Here are some pens for you
I have no ink.

This ink is too thick.

It will not run.

Mix some water with it.

This ink is not black.

There is too much water in it.

My pen is not good.

Here is a steel pen.

Ke luliluli nei ka pahu.

Please show me how to hold the pen.

Thus, hold it at the end of your fingers, with the thumb underneath.

Let the short fingers rest on the paper.

Your penknife is dull.

You have cut wood with it

You must sharpen it again

You have a hone, give it to me.

Here it is, take it.

This pen is blunt, will you sharpen it?

I will make it a good pen.

Have you got your arithmetic lesson?

Here it is on the slate.

Let me see it.

You have not multiplied aright.

erly.

Your division is wrong.

You did not get the answer

Now you have done it right

James, what does geography teach?

It teaches about the countries and people of the earth.

John, what does astronomy teach?

It teaches about the sun, moon and stars.

What does geometry teach

It teaches to measure heights and distances.

What does the Word of God teach?

It teaches how to be good and happy.

Is there anything else as great as this?

This is the great thing before all.

What is the use of learning

Its use is to know the truth

Are not ignorant men happy?

They are not as happy as the learned.

The ignorance of our forefathers was the cause of their misery.

They did not know the right and the wrong way

Therefore, they did the wrong.

E Kimo, heaha ka ke aohonua e ao mai nei?

Ke ao mai nei ia no na aina a me na kanaka o ka honua.

Ioane e, heaha ka ke aohoku e ao mai nei?

Ke ao mai nei ia no ka la, ka mahina a me na hoku

Heaha hoi ke ao ana mai a ke anahonua?

Ke ao mai nei ia e ana i na mea kiekie me na mea loloa.

But you are taught now,
still many do evil.

Now they know the right way, but their hearts
choose the wrong.

If you know the right but do it not, what then?

Then our evil will be the greater.

How may you profit by learning?

By doing as I am taught.

But there are teachers of evil.

We may know them by their deeds.

To unite good instruction and good deeds is the true way.

If the heart is right, then good instruction will bring forth good deeds, and men will be good.

Aka, ua aoia oukou ano, a

Yes, I came here on foot.

I cut timber for a house.

I also felled a tree for a canoe.

Are you hungry? come eat

I am tired and lame.

My feet are sore by walking.

Why did you not ride a horse?

My horse is on the common and I could not find him

There is no path for a horse where I went.

It is over clippers.

What did you eat in the mountain?

I had food and fish for two days, and then I ate fern root.

OF HUSBANDRY.

NO KA MAHIAI.

We are cultivating food.
Food will not grow of itself
Weeds grow without cultivation.

Food will not grow in the weeds.

Work only will raise food

What is the work to grow food?

In Hawaii we first clear out the large weeds.

Then we clean the ground with the oo.

Sometimes we burn the grass and all rubbish.

The ground must be moist
Rain is the best thing to moisten.

In some places we irrigate

This is well in the time of no rain.

For some kinds we plant seeds.

And for some we plant the fruit.

For sweet potatoes the leaves are planted.

For the kalo the stalk is planted.

Does the plantiug make it grow?

Ke mahiai nei kakou.

Aole e ulu wale ka ai.

Ke ulu nei ka nahelehele me ka mahi ole ia.

Aole e ulu ka ai maloko o ka nahelehele.

Na ka hana wale no e hoo-ulu ka ai.

Heaha ka hana e ulu ai ka ai?

Ma Hawaii nei, he waele mua makou i na nahelehele.

Alaila hoomaikai makou i ka lepo me ka oo.

Ikahi manawa puhino makou i ka mauu a me ka opala a pau.

E ma-u ka lepo e pono ai.

O ka ua ka mea pono loa e ma-u ai.

Ma kau wahi he hookahe makou i ka wai.

Oia ka mea pono i ka wa ua ole.

No kekahi mau mea, he kanu makonina anoano

A no kekahi he kanu makou i na hua.

Noka uala maoli he kanuia na lau.

No ke kalo he kanuia ka huli.

Na ke kanu ana anei ka ulu?

No, we plant, but God gives the water that makes it grow.

If it is not planted it will not grow.

If it is not watered it will not grow.

If it is not weeded, how then?

Then it will not bear fruit.

Then the plant becomes a weed.

Pota'oes bear fruit in a few months.

Kalo grows for more than a year.

Melons are ripe in three months.

We have many new plants brought here by foreigners.

Corn is planted in rows.

Wheat is sown with the hand.

There are many worms and caterpillars that eat the young leaf.

Some are discouraged by these.

You have much good land

The greater part is fallow

Why do you not plant more?

There are many lazy people.

Aole, na kakou e kanu, a na ke Akua mai ka wai hooulu.

Ina aole i kanuia, aole no ia e ulu.

Ina aole i pulu, aole hoi ia e ulu.

Ina aole i waeleia, pehea?

Alaila, aole ia e hua i na hua.

Alaila ua lilo ka mea kanu i nahelehele.

A hala kekahi mau malama, ua hua ka uala.

He nui ka aina maikai o oukou.

Ua nahelehele no ka nui.

No ke aha aole oukou e kanu a nui ae?

He nui na kanaka palaualelo.

They are afraid to work.
What do they get to eat?

They are often hungry.
They are very much in debt.

They do not intend to pay

They have many schemes to get food and clothes.

But have no will to work.
They are always poor.
Some of them steal food.

And they are expert at begging.

Lazy folks can not be trusted.

They talk good but it is only their mouths.

Their hearts are deceitful.

And they lie in wait to steal while folks are asleep or at church.

It is a good thing to work
An idle man thinks of evil.

His land is not fenced.

Animals break in.

His house is leaning.
And the thatch is off.
He has no bed, but sleeps on the ground.

He makau lakou i ka hana.
Heaha ka lakou mea e ai

Ua pololi pinepine lakou.
He nui ko lakou aie.

Ke hio nei kona hale.

A ua hemo ke pili.

Aohe ona wahi moe, ua

There is no table or chairs.
He sits on a stone or mat.

His calabash is broken.
And his fish vessel is empty.

When he thinks, it is of evil.

When he is hungry, he sits at his neighbor's door.

He has two hands that will not work.

He does not think of God,
but thinks to cheat his friend.

His children are naked and his wife a wanderer.

Because he is afraid to work.

Truly "The head of a lazy man is the devil's work shop."

Aohe papaaina, aohe noho
Ua noho no ia ma ka poha-

He oiaio, "O ke poo o ke

MORAL DUTIES.

If you would be loved,
then act kindly to others.

If you are in health, then take care of your health

Do nothing that will injure the health of your body.

If you are hungry do not eat too much.

NA PONO.

Ina makemake oe e alohaia mai alaila e hana aloha

Ina e ola pono ana oe, alaila e malama pono oe

Mai hana iki oe i ka mea

Ina e pololi oe mai pakela

Too much food makes one sick.

Do some work every day.

If you have a friend, do not neglect him.

If any be hungry, feed him

If any thirst, give him drink.

Never drink with the drunken.

Never associate with the wicked

Keep yourself pure.

Keep yourself free from evil.

Think evil of no man.

Look on the fair side.

Seek not high things.

Be afraid of laziness.

Be not afraid of work.

If you want food, cultivate

If you want clothes, work

Get the means to buy.

No thief can get wealth.

All he has is taken away.

The law is hard upon evil doers.

The law is a shelter over him that does well.

O ka nui o ka ai ana he mea hoomaimai i ke kanaka.

E hana i kekahi hana i kela la a i keia la.

Aole he aihue e loa mai ka waiwai.

Ua kailiia'e kana mea a pau

Ua koikoi ke kanawai i ka poe hana hewa.

He malu no ke kanawai maluna o ka mea hana pono.

If you owe any, pay him.

Do not sleep while in debt

A bankrupt will soon lose his all.

Be afraid to enter into debt.

If you buy, first seek the means to pay.

If you sell, do not trust.

If you hire work, pay quickly.

If you pass your word, fulfil it in truth.

Never tell a lie, never.

It is better to suffer for the truth than to conquer with a lie.

Do not go to law for trifles.

Your lawyer will take all your money.

There is much loss in going to law.

Better to bear a little loss than by going to law you lose all.

Be kind to all men, but be bound to none.

Live with your wife in peace all the days of your life.

Help her when needy.

Ina aie oe i ka kekahi, e uku aku.

Love her until death.

Look not on other woman.

A good wife is the gift of God.

She is better than wealth.

A bad wife must be endured.

Treat her kindly that she may learn to do well.

Remember your marriage vow.

Wives, love your husbands.

Your husband is your protector.

He gives you food and clothes.

With a house and home.

You have left father and mother and cleaved to your husband.

Then live with him and no other.

That your end may be in peace.

Desire not another husband.

You took him in your youth.

You vowed to God in marriage.

Now fulfil your vow.

Do not give away the food
It is the fruit of your husband's labor.

Give with the consent of you both.

Do not forsake him when old.

Bear with his infirmities.

If he is sick, tend him.

Do not get an ignorant doctor.

In his dying, lay his head on your lap.

Then he will bless you in dying, and will pray that God take care of you and your children.

God takes care of good widows.

Feed them when hungry.

Pray with them at home.

Take them with you to church on the Sabbath.

Do not let them stay away on the Sabbath.

Teach them the word of God.

Speak no bad words before them.

Let only good words come from thy mouth.

Then they will love their parent.

When he is old they will take care of him.

If you do not teach them the good, they will become bad, and forsake you when old.

Live in peace with your neighbor.

Do not speak evil of him.

Do not backbite him.

Do deeds of kindness to him.

If he is in distress, relieve him.

If he is sick, visit him.

 What is the news?
 A battle is fought.
 The Russians are defeated
 They deliberate for peace.

Where have you gone?
 Come home.
 Go to bed.

 What is that to me?
 I cannot hear.

 Are you deaf?
 Bring a light.
 Let it alone.

 Don't fall.
 Don't let it fall.
 It is broken.
 Never mind it.

 Whose hat is this?
 Where is my fan?
 Is my umbrella there?
 He struck me with a stick.

 Light the lamp.
 It is good for nothing.
 Who says so?
 I suppose so.
 Get up quick.
 Put on your jacket.

 What tree is this?
 Do it now.

 Where do you live?

 Has your father got well?

Let us play ball.
 May I go out?

If you want to go.
 They are both good.
 You cannot catch me.
 You run too fast.

How long will you be gone

Is it not finished?

Do it as I tell you.

Do not mind what he says

I have taken physic.

What is your sickness?

A severe headache.

Are you better now?

I shall sleep well to-night.

I am at work in the garden.

Your hoe is broken.

Will you dine with us?

I will come to-morrow.

Or the day after perhaps.

What man is that?

I see him for the first time

He is only pretending.

No; he is in earnest.

Is it high water, or low?

The moon is in full to night

She will be in an eclipse.

It is eclipsed by the shadow of the earth falling upon the moon.

That explains it.

Two and five are how many

The bait is eaten up.

Of what nation are you?

From what country are you

E ulu ana na pua nani ma

Who is your king?
 Is he a good man?
 Is he a soldier?
 Are the people living in peace?
 He is a respectable man.
 He guides his horse well.
 Who is to blame.
 It is not his fault.
 I condemn no one.
 It won't be long.
 That is his concern.
 This boy is all for play.

Go find out the meaning.
 Take the eggs one by one.
 The vessel is out of sight.
 How was this plate broken

He cares only for money.

This cost me seven dollars

To-morrow, we enter the house.

What is the reason?

There is no proper cause.

He always finds fault.

He has no love for us.

Is your new house done?

In a month I shall go.

I bathe every day.

Mind what you are doing
 He has ten thousand dollars.

Owai ko oukou moi?

I have found what it means
What have you been doing to-day?

I have been writing to my father.

What o'clock is it?

When shall we settle accounts?

I am indebted to you.

I have brought you some money.

Who made this hat?

Here is the maker's name

He is a skillful workman.

Comb your hair.

Shave your beard.

Prepare for church.

The bell rings.

The dog barks.

The people assemble.

The wind blows.

The tide rises.

The stream flows.

The sun is hot.

The cloud is rising.

The sun is setting.

It is out of sight.

It rises again in the morning.

How will you be if I go away?

I am sad at the thought.

You may not come again.

E hana mua i keia, alaila i kela.

I have no words to reply.
Stay here till morning.

That is not for me to say.
I cannot help you.

I pity you.
I did not say so.
I kept it secret.
For whom do you make this?

Where were you born?
Where was he brought up
You need not do it.
It is already done.
Is this for sale?
He has just gone.
Is it right to do so?
That is not true.
Did you call me?
What noise is that?
It is well known.
It is very plain to all.

He has gone on board.

He has gone on shore.
Come early in the morning
That is not my meaning

Smell this rose.
Say it in English.
It is not salted.
Don't let it get wet.
When are you going?
He is coming this evening

Aohea'u olelo e pane aku ai

Which shall I choose?
 Do you explain my riddle?
 Whose child are you?
 The clock has stopped.
 I forgot to wind it up
 Where did you leave it?
 Who gave you leave to go
 Does he live there now?
 Why do you think so?
 Put it down carefully.
 It is not so.
 Here is not light enough.

It is very light.
 It is very light (not heavy)
 It is very heavy.
 I cannot carry it.
 We think well of him.

I don't doubt it.
 It is very true.
 It is twelve o'clock.

It is past noon.
 It is past midnight.
 I lay awake last night.
 The noise disturbed me.
 Help him come down.
 Such is the Hawaiian custom.

Is this pencil yours?
 I cannot lift it.
 He is a stranger.
 That is a resident.
 You don't read right.
 This is my work.

E koho au i ka mea hea?
 E koho oe i kuu nane.

How did you tell him?
What shall I do next?
Shall I go again?
His house is next to mine.

Put it back again.
Bring him to me.
He is a bashful countryman.
She is a blushing girl.

It is a windy day.
Here, drink this medicine
It will relieve your pain.
Your voice is very loud.
Your voice is not heard.
I think you did it.

Hark! what is that?
Is that all?
Ring the bell.
Fill it up.
It runs over.
You talk too much.
Fill it half full.
Burn it up.
It is time to go.
My eyes are weak.
This coffee is weak.
It is hard as stone.
